Data Protection Act – Information Uses

We may store your information on a computer and use it for administration, risk assessment, research and statistical purposes, marketing purposes and for crime prevention (see further details below). We will only disclose your personal details to third parties, if it is necessary for the performance of your contract with us.

In order to assess the terms of the insurance contract or administer claims that arise, we will need to collect data that the Data Protection Act defines as sensitive such as medical history, criminal convictions or credit searches. By proceeding with this contract you will signify your consent to such information being processed by the Insurer or his Agents.

Fraud Prevention and Detection Agencies

If false or inaccurate information is provided and fraud is identified or suspected, details may be passed to fraud prevention agencies. Law enforcement agencies may access and use this information.

We and other organisations may also access and use this information to prevent fraud and money laundering and information recorded by fraud prevention agencies may be used from other countries.

Declaration

I/we declare that in respect of the covers proposed, no director or partner, either in the name of the business proposed, or in the name of any other business in which I/we have an interest has

- ever had a proposal for insurance declined, renewal refused, cover terminated increased premium required or special conditions imposed by any insurer.
- been convicted of or charged (but not yet tried) with a breach of any health and safety legislation or any other criminal offence other than a motoring offence.
- been declared bankrupt or the subject of bankruptcy proceedings, or been the subject of a County Court Judgement or ever been a director or partner in any business which has been the subject of an individual voluntary arrangement with creditors, voluntary liquidation, a winding up or administrative order, or administrative receivership proceedings.

To the best of my/our knowledge and belief the information provided is correct and complete. If the risk is accepted I/we undertake to pay the premium when called upon to do so. I/We understand that that my/our information may also be disclosed to regulatory bodies for the purposes of monitoring and/or enforcing the insurer's compliance with any regulatory rules/codes.

We recommend that you keep for your record a copy of this proposal form and any letters or information supplied to us for the purpose of entering into this insurance contract.

MATERIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

Please remember that you must make a fair presentation of the risk to us. This means that you must:

- disclose to us every material circumstance which you know or ought to know or, failing that, sufficient information to alert us that we need to make further enquiries; and
- make such disclosure in a reasonably clear and accessible manner; and
- ensure that, in such disclosure, any material representation as to a: (a) matter of fact is substantially correct; and (b) matter of expectation or belief is made in good faith.

A material circumstance is one that is likely to influence an insurer in the acceptance and assessment of the application. You must also make a fair presentation to us in connection with any variations, e.g. changes you wish to make to your policy. If you fail to make a fair presentation of the risk then this could affect the extent of cover provided or could invalidate your policy, so if you are in any doubt as to whether a circumstance is material then it should be disclosed to us.

Disclosures should be specific and made in a reasonably clear and accessible manner. We will not be deemed to have knowledge of any information generally referred to (for example the contents of company websites listed in the risk presentation) or any matter not expressly drawn to our attention.
